The Reflection of Life for

Leroy "Danny" Dingle

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. II Timothy 4:7-8

Leroy Dingle was born on November 18, 1941 to the late Richard and Celia Seabrook Dingle. He departed this life on January 4, 2024

Leroy was educated in the public Schools of Charleston County. He accepted Christ as his personal Savior. His faith and strength carried him through many sickness, but he never complained.

Leroy was a became member of Goodwill AME Church and joined Class #2.

Leroy worked 30 years at Charleston Sanitary Department. We called him the yard cutting man, something he loved to do. He would cut about seven yards a day.

Two sisters proceeded him in death.

Leroy leaves to cherish his memories to, his children, Leroy Brown, Sr. (Josetta), Fonda Brown and Brittany Washington; one grandson, Leroy brown, Jr.; two brothers, Richard Dingle (Marilyn) and John Henry Dingle (Kathryn); three sisters, Lucille Mazyck (Late David), Pearl Washington (William) and Shelia Bennett (George); Adopted sister, Emma Edwards of New York, New York; one aunt, Mary Bryant; a special friend, Alma Mitchell and a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts

Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see;

If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry

The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,

That an angel came and called my name
and took me by the hand.

And said my place was ready,
In Heaven up above;
And that I'd have to leave behind,
All those I dearly love.

So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.....
