~ REFLECTIONS OF LIFE ~

Solomon, the son of King David wrote in Ecclesiastes 3:1-2 (NIV): There is a time for everything and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot.

On April 13, 2023, Joseph answered to his name. His Battle Is Over!

Joseph Jones, Jr., the son of Joseph Jones, Sr. and the late Rosabell W. Jones was born on September 27, 1967.

He received his education through the Public Schools of Charleston County .

He was married to the late Adrian Simmons Jones.

He loved sports, the Miami Heat, the North Carolina Tarheels and San Francisco 49ers was his favorite teams.

He loved hanging with his family and friends.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his father, Joseph Jones, Sr. (Rosabell W. Jones, deceased); his siblings, Darrin Jones (Deanna), Kevin Jones (Cindy) and Carla Jones; his stepchildren, Nasonya Shanay Simmons and Nastafa Umar Haynes; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

'I've Fought A Good Fight'

Dear Brother Your

Memory will Never Fade!

Our dear brother now that you are gone

You're no longer here to share

The bond we had together.

A bond of love and care.

We miss you so very much,

and tears we cannot hide

Yet within our heart we feel

You are always by our side.

Ever since you went away

Life has never been the same

Yet, it comforts us to know

That one day we'll meet again.-

Trust God

There's never a tear drop that God doesn't see,

He knows when a sparrow falls from a tree.

There's never a moment

When God doesn't care,

Never a time when

He won't hear our prayer.

-Patricia Emme

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
 or sat quietly in chair,
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
 if so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke with the kindest words,
 as any friend could say,
 Perhaps you were not there at all,
 just thought of us today.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts,
 We thank you so very much,
 whatever your part.
