Reflection of Life

Mr. Francis "Frank Gilliard" Seabrook was born in Charleston County, South Carolina to the late Pearl Nelson Manigault and Steven Gilliard on May 4, 1939. He entered eternal rest on August 21, 2023.

Frank was educated in the public schools of Charleston County SC. He accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour at an early age. He joined Greater Goodwill AME Church and was a member of class #9. He was a faithful member who attended regularly until his health began to fail. During his stay at the nursing facility, he continued to trust that the Lord would take care of him. He welcomed anyone who was willing to lead a word of prayer.

A carpenter by trade for over 50 years. He repaired and helped to build many constructions while living in New York City. His entrepreneurial career continued when he moved back to Charleston. He loved his family and often spoke of them with care and honesty. He enjoyed music which led him to join a band as a guitarist and a disc jockey. Frank loved baseball and traveling especially going on cruises. He had a happy disposition about life and enjoyed being around people.

He was preceded in death by his loving parents and his sisters, Alfreda Spells, Estelle Sanders, and Maryann Waterman. His brother, Harry Nelson, Jr., and uncle, Thomas Seabrook.

Reflection of Life continues....

Frank leaves to cherish his precious memories with his devoted companion, Martha C. Brown; his children, Sandra (Jasper) Gittens, Levon Gilliard, Frank Gilliard of Manhattan NY, Karen Gilliard, Mary Gilliard, Tanya Gilliard, Tyrone Gilliard, Ricky Gilliard, and Leslie "Kim" B. Gethers; his siblings, Martha Lee Dawson, Sarah Bell Hott of Salley SC, Leola Bakker, William (Tina) Nelson, Pearl Elaine (Kemery) Berry, Eunice White, Rodney Gilliard, and Donald Gilliard; twenty-six grandchildren and twenty-eight great-grandchildren. A dedicated granddaughter, Shaniqua "Dawn" Alston, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In Our Hearts

We thought of your father,
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday,
Each day's before that too.
We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories,
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keeper,
A life which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping,
We have you in our heart.
